JARED BOWLEY)

GOVERNMENT'S POSITION ON DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR EARLY TERMINATION OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

The United States joins the United States Probation Officer's recommendation that the Court grant Mr. Bowley's request for early termination of supervised release. See Probation Officer's Response to Motion for Early Termination of Supervised Release, Document No. 755, dated June 7, 2013. Given Mr. Bowley's law abiding conduct and continued rehabilitation while on supervision as set forth in his motion and supported by the Probation Officer's Response, it appears that Mr. Bowley has more than successfully met the goals of supervision and has completed over two years of his three year term of supervision, and thus is statutorily eligible to be considered for early termination.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN P. KACAVAS
United States Attorney
